Staff Feature: Comptroller Preet Virk

We have an amazing National Office staff that our membership can be very proud of. They work hard every day and are committed to providing our members with the very best service and representation in organized labor. Today, we feature NATCA's Comptroller Preet Virk.

Virk joined the National Office staff as senior staff accountant in January 2009 and has served as NATCA's comptroller at the National Office in Washington, D.C., since July 9, 2018. He has been an invaluable part of the Accounting Department over the past 14 years, and he has been integral in many of the major changes implemented during that period including the transition to electronic vouchering.

In recognition of his excellent professional leadership, Virk was awarded the Tim Haines Memorial Award of Honor and Distinction, otherwise known as the “Timmy Award,” at the 18th Biennial Convention in Houston. Read more about Virk and his work at NATCA’s National Office here.
